Exeter St David's Station to the University:

There is a taxi rank outside the station, where delegates can catch a taxi.

The University runs a mini bus service between Exeter St David's Station and the University for staff and students. Delegates could if they choose use this service. The bus stop is located behind the taxi rank outside the station (you should be able to see a sign with the Exeter University logo from the entrance of the station). It operates between 7.45am and 10.30 pm, and at half hour intervals from 4.00pm till 5.30pm from the layby outside the Geoffrey Pope Building. In the mornings, delegates are advised to ask the driver to stop outside the Peter Chalk Centre as they reach the top of the hill.

Alternatively, delegates can walk to the conference venue from the station. It is about 15 minutes walk, but delegates should be warned it is uphill all the way, and can be quite steep! Maps of the university can be found at the end of the document.

Town Centre to University

The town centre is a 20-minute walk from the University, and is quite manageable. Alternatively the D Bus goes regularly from the town centre to the university, except on Sundays. The bus can be caught from the High Street (outside Starbucks), Queens Street or opposite Exeter Central Station, as well as other stops along the route. During the conference the bus goes at half hour intervals, normally at 5 past and 35 past the hour from the High Street.
